Employment Questions:

-Why did you choose to work as a dog daycare worker? (Keeping in mind that there is a minimum of 50 dogs here at all times and most of the employees do own a dog as well.)

-How do you handle unruly dogs? Do you have a specific strategy?

-IF APPLIES: What specific duties have you performed while working as a dog daycare assistant in the past?

-When it comes to self-direction and being a quick learner, where do you think you are on a scale of 1-10? (10 being very high) Why?

-What skills do you think are necessary to work as a dog daycare assistant?

-You are armed with a spray bottle and a lead at all times. When there is a scuffle between two dogs and it looks like it is getting out of hand and you are one of the two daycare attendants in the room, what will your action be?

-Another daycare attendant (not your boss) directs you to put a dog in a cubby, (we generally use cubbies for naps, timeouts and feedings), you are unsure of the reason your co-worker has asked you to put the dog away, what do you do?

-You encounter a client who questions their bill, but you are sure that the bill is correct. What do you do in this situation?

-Are you able to lift 50+ pounds, stand on your feet for long periods of time and withstand being outside during all types of weather?

-What motivates you the most in this type of work?

-Do you feel comfortable being around all types of dog breeds and dog sizes?

-As a daycare attendant, are you willing to pick up dog poop and any other accidents the dog may have.
